Notes for RUSSELL DEYO JR. TERRY:
[John Westly Terry Family.FTW]

Russell was quite an outdoorsman. He loved fishing, bow hunting and camping. Once took a horseback trip into Mexico. Also, bought a jeep, redid it, and drove to Alaska. He sold the jeep while there, and he and a friend were bush piloted into the interior. They camped out for 6 months and returned in August, before the winter set in. His friend stayed in Alaska. He had quite a beard when he got back to Houston.

He and Carol took underprivileged children on canoe trips in Missouri. Carol and Russell also started a quail farm, which was finally starting to pay off when Russell found out he had cancer. They went out of business.

Russell was also an assistant pastor at the baptist church in Cedar Hill.

Russell was quite an artist too. They were redoing the Warwick Hotel in Houston and he was contracted to design the inside of several rooms. He also like to work with balsa wood - he built a cruise ship while in Korea (with people and lighting). My mother has it. Also like to work with leather. I have a purse that he did and worked with metal (have a candle holder), and a book holder he made.
