Hancock, Frieda Terry

Frieda Terry Hancock, age 97, died Wednesday, November 14, 2001 at Carrington Place in Matthews. Funeral services will be conducted by the Reverend Doctor Robert S. Hough at Westover Hills Presbyterian Church, 1113 Fordham Road, Charlotte, NC on Saturday, November 17, 2001 at 2:00 p.m.

Frieda was born February 28, 1904 in Rockingham, NC, the eighth of 13 children of Frank Shortridge Terry and Alethia Pearce Terry. She was raised in a strict, but loving and happy Christian family. Frieda had a lovely soprano voice and sang throughout her life in church choirs and social functions, even into her early nineties. Frieda's wedding write-up by the Rockingham newspaper described her as `a very talented and popular young lady` when she married Martin L. Hancock in 1923. The Hancocks made their home in Gastonia for many years before moving to Charlotte. In Charlotte, Frieda was a charter member of Westover Hills Presbyterian Church where she served as President of the Women of the Church. She held offices in her children's school PTAs, and worked at times at the City/County Elections Board.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Martin L. Hancock, Sr., a son, Martin L. `Sonny` Hancock, Jr., and a granddaughter, Susan Hancock Ingram. She is survived by daughter, Carolyn H. Brotherton
