1. SAMUEL⁴ TERRY (WILLIAM³, JOHN², JOHN¹)^{1,1,2} was born Abt. 1633 in Barnet, England³, and died Abt. 1730³. He married (1) ANN LOBDELL^{4,5} January 03, 1659/60, daughter of NICHOLAS LOBDELL and JANE. She was born WFT Est. 1624-1641^{6,7}, and died May 1684 in Springfield, Ma^{8,9}. Notes for SAMUEL TERRY:

Henry K. Terry writes in his publication "The English Founders of the Terry Family" that his findings in the search of Samuel Terry's English ancestors was inconclusive. However, "we think that he was probably the son of William Terry, and followed his uncles John and Stephen, to their home in New England." It is based upon this publication that the relationship shown in this report between Samuel Terry - The Immigrant and William Terry has been drawn.

He was the sixth of the surname Terry, who reached New England within a period of 20 years. These being: 1. Stephen Terry (Dorchester, 1639 at age 32); 2. John Terry (Windsor 1635 - thought to have been the brother of Stephen); 3. Thomas Terry (Southold, 1635 at age 28); 4. Richard Terry (Southold, 1635 at age 17); 5. Robert Terry (Southold, 1635 at age 25) and 6. Samuel Terry (Springfield, 1650 at age 18)

He was originally apprenticed to William Pynchon, who brought him from England to Boston, Mass in 1650. In an agreement dated October 15, 1650 his remaining 3 1/2 years of apprenticeship was transferred to Benjamin Cooley, a cloth weaver.

Samuel received several land grants beginning in 1654/55 with land in Springfield, Mass. From 1663-65 he received grants in what is now Westfield & Enfield, CT and an additional grant in Springfield, Mass.

Prior to 1681 he served as Constable; was a member of the committee to establish boundaries between Springfield and adjoining towns in 1685 and was appointed surveyor of highways in 1678. In 1693 he made an agreement to teach his step-son Ebenezer Scott, the art of cloth weaving and was again chosen constable in the same year.

Administration of his estate was granted to his sons, Samuel and Thomas
